STAT

Dear

Thank you for your letter of 14 April 1950.

STAT

I cannot say definitely at the moment whether I shall be here on the 24th and 25th of April at which time you indicate you will be passing through Washington, so I would rather suggest that, upon arrival, you contact our Personnel Office ([redacted]) and arrange a mutually convenient time for you to discuss your desires to enter the intelligence field.

I would like to mention that a very small number of officers on active duty with the armed services are detailed to this Agency and in your particular Branch, only when specifically designated by the Director of Intelligence, Headquarters, U. S. Air Force.

Your interest in this Agency is appreciated, and with very best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,

sgd & disp via ER 4/18/50
